

Why should you answer stud

Humak's activities are developed based on the surveys. This is how previous feedback has already had an impact.

Improved quality and accessibility of study modules

All study modules are now subject to quality and accessibility assurance before the start of studies.

Humak complies with the common pedagogical quality criteria for universities of applied sciences

Internationalization on practices clarified

International practices have been developed based on feedback received. The student guide now includes clear instructions on topics such as:

- The Global Talent competence badge
- Selection criteria for student exchanges
